Presidents Corner: Gents, a fine day to you all. Wow, Sept has arrived and fall is in the air. This is my last correspondence as your Prez and I just want to say thanks for your time and tolerance. It has been my pleasure serving on the board of this fine club for the last eight years or so. The best to the new board members; we are indeed in capable hands. Don't forget our first general meeting and the Shotgun Shoot / Highway clean-up and Pray for Snow! Our next meeting is at the Buffalo Gap, Sept. 08th, doors open at 615p and the meeting starts at 7p. This is a pizza night come a little early and get a slice or two. Best to you, Scott

SVSC Picnic Recap: We had a good time at the picnic again this year, Thanks to Terry Walters his wife and daughter, Dave Rasmussen and wife, John Orefice, Ron Reichardt, Jerry Eichentopf and wife, Ed Rogers and others that helped, donated and cleaned up. We had many of our long time members attend; it was great to see them. The horseshoe tournament was a rerun of last year; Dom Biggi and Bill Clare VS Duane Bridge and Ron Reichardt. Dom and Bill' name go on the trophy again. We had a new event this year: The battle of the scooters! It was a race between Charlie Speer and Carlo Ottoboni. Charlie came out of the hole first, but, Carlo's horsepower took the race. It was truly a sight to behold. Did one of you guy's leave a set of horseshoes at the park? If so, contact me as I picked them up; Ron.

Brother Jack Weigand: He had to have a second surgery to clean up some infection he was in a better condition to withstand this one. The following is a note from his daughter Lynn:
Hi Friends: Dad's surgery went well today. The surgeon removed some muscle that was not getting enough blood flow, and some infected tissue and bone. The good news is that he did not need to go too far, so the amputation remains below the knee. That will be much better for his future leg and mobility. He was in a lot of pain after the surgery, but was much better when I visited tonight. He is in room 919 at St. Vincent's and seems in good spirits. We don't know how long he will remain there, but I'm guessing at least through the weekend if you want to call or visit. Thanks so much for your cards, calls and visits to dad he really appreciates knowing you are all there pulling for him. (Aug 12th)

Will I live to be 80? I recently turned 65 and had to choose a new primary care physician for my Medicare program. After two visits and exhaustive lab tests, he said I was doing "fairly well" for my age. A little concerned about that comment, I couldn't resist asking him, "Do you think I will live to be 80?" He asked: Do you smoke tobacco or drink alcoholic beverages?" "Oh no," I replied. "I don't do drugs either." "Do you have many friends and entertain frequently?" I said, "No, I usually stay home and keep to myself". "Do you eat steak or barbecued ribs?" I said, "No, my other doctor said that all red meat is unhealthy!" "Do you spend a lot of time in the sun, like playing golf, sailing, hiking, or bicycling?" "No, I don't," I said. "Do you gamble, drive fast cars, or have a lot of sex?" "No," I said. "I don't do any of those things." He looked at me and said, "Then why do you care?" (Not a Schnee boy)

Marry a Young Woman: At 85 years of age, Morris married Lou Anne, a lovely 25 year old. Since her new husband is so old, Lou Anne decides that after their Wedding she and Morris should have separate bedrooms, because she is concerned that her new but aged husband may overexert himself if they spend the entire night together. After the wedding festivities Lou Anne prepares herself for bed and the expected "knock" on the door. Sure enough the knock comes, the door opens and there is Morris, her 85 year old groom, ready for action. They unite as one. All goes well, Morris takes leave of his bride, and she prepares to go to sleep. After a few minutes, Lou Anne hears another knock on her bedroom door, and it's Morris. Again he is ready for more "action". Somewhat surprised, Lou Anne consents for more coupling. When the newlyweds are done, Morris kisses his bride, bids her a fond good night and leaves. She is set to go to sleep again, but, aha you guessed it - Morris is back again, rapping on the door, and is as fresh as a 25-year-old, ready for more "action". And, once more they enjoy each other. But as Morris gets set to leave again, his young bride says to him, "I am thoroughly impressed that at your age you can perform so well and so often. I have been with guys less than a third of your age who were only good once. You are truly a great lover, Morris." Morris, somewhat embarrassed, turns to Lou Anne and says: "You mean I was here already?" The moral of the story: Alzheimer's has its advantages
