President's Corner:

Hi All,

We've had some fantastic snow lately so I hope everyone's been able to get up and make some turns. This past weekend we had Pacrat races Friday and Saturday. The snow conditions were pretty good. The timing system... that's another story. We had great party's at Cascade Ski Club. We have some great events coming up this month, a couple of condor cups, club championships and steak fry, and a super fun Meadows dinner. Hope you can make some or all of the events looking forward to seeing you on the mountain.

Ciao,

Bob

Photo Contest: A month ago the Club Historian announced the First Annual Schnee Vogeli Photo contest. He'll be accepting submissions throughout the season. We'll hold a vote on our favorite submissions as we approach the end of the season. Prizes are still under consideration but will likely include beer and Schnee paraphernalia. You may submit your photos to the Club Historian (historian@schneevogeli.com).

Terry Walters Condor Cup: Next race is March 12 (Sunday) at Ski Bowl. Please look for an email this week with race details.

The Club Championships – Snow Bird: March 18th at Ski Bowl followed by some “light” BBQ at Ed’s garage and then the annual awards dinner at the Welches Lion’s Club, $20 at the door for a nice steak dinner. Doors open at 6PM, food is served about 7. BYOB. The race will likely be on Bill’s Gold (aka Dog Leg) and starts at 10AM. It will be a dual course, race with guys in your class. Slowest class goes first. Reverse order within class for second run. Both runs count for classes A, B and C. Best of two runs for remaining classes.

A single course "open" GS will be set after the main race for the Snow Bird. Snow Bird participants should preview the course as it is set and get back to the top ASAP. Oldest to youngest, one run race. We will have a Calcutta at the March 14 meeting on the Snow Bird. Come out and have some fun and try to get your name on the trophy. Watch for Class and Snow Bird lists in the near future – let Dale know if any questions. Please note that "snow sport specific" helmets are PACRAT Racing: We had our third pair of races this past weekend at Ski Bowl. We had a few absences due to injury/travel so we'll see how our teams did when results come out. From raw times and reactions from some of our racers it could be a mixed bag. Next PACRAT race weekend is March 17-19.

Meadows Dinner: Don Clay has organized another dinner at Meadows this year on Saturday, April 8th. There will be a cocktail party at Trail's End followed by a bus ride up to the Sahalee Lodge at Mt. Hood Meadows. Once dinner is over the bus will return us to Government Camp. It's a lively event and always a great time, not to mention the phenomenal food.

Tickets are available at the link below:

If you'd like to bring a guest then remember you'll need to use the link above twice. Once for each person.

The Next Meeting is happening on Tuesday, March 14th at the Gap. Doors open at 6:15 PM for those of you who'd like to hang out early. Official meeting start time is 7 PM.

Schnee Tee Shirts and other merchandise are being sold by Ed Carman. Recently, our friendly club president sent out a notice that Ed is ordering some new Schnee hats. Check your inboxes for a chance to jump on this opportunity. Please feel free to reach out to him or myself with any inquiries. His contacts are able to provide logo printing on virtually any article of clothing you could wish for. So, whether you're looking to represent the club at a local sporting event or if you'd like your wife/girlfriend to represent in the bedroom, we've got you covered.

Three Nuns at the Pearly Gates

At the Pearly Gates, they are met by St. Peter.

He says "Sisters, you all led such wonderful lives that I'm granting you six months to go back to earth and be anyone you want to be."

The first nun says, "I want to be Sophia Loren;" and *poof* she's gone.

The second says, "I want to be Madonna;" and *poof* she's gone.

The third says, "I want to be Sara Pipalini."
St. Peter looks perplexed. "Who?" he says.
"Sara Pipalini;" replies the nun.

St. Peter shakes his head and says; "I'm sorry, but that name just doesn't ring a bell."
The nun then takes a newspaper out of her habit and hands it to St. Peter.
He reads the paper and starts laughing.
He hands it back to her and says:

"No sister, the paper says it was the 'Sahara Pipeline' that was laid by 1,400 men in 6 months."

Getting Wayed

Joe took his blind date to the carnival.

"What would you like to do first, Kim?" asked Joe.

"I want to get weighed," she said.

They ambled over to the weight guesser.

He guessed 120 pounds. She got on the scale; it read 117 and she won a prize.

Next the couple went on the ferris wheel.

When the ride was over, Joe again asked Kim what she would like to do.

"I want to get weighed," she said.

Back to the weight guesser they went.

Since they had been there before, he guessed her correct weight, and Joe lost his dollar.

The couple walked around the carnival and again he asked where to next.

"I want to get weighed," she responded.

By this time, Joe figured she was really weird and took her home early, dropping her off with a handshake.

Her roommate, Laura, asked her about the blind date,

"How'd it go?"

Kim responded, "Oh, Waura, it was wousy!!"

The Blizzard

A priest and a nun are caught in a blizzard. They find a deserted cabin and take shelter. They find a sleeping bag, a bed, and a pile of blankets. The priest, being a gentleman, offers the nun the bed and takes the sleeping bag for himself.

As they get tucked in for the night the nun calls out, "Father, Father I'm cold!"

So the priest gets up and puts another blanket on the nun. "Is that better Sister?" he asks. "Yes Father, much better," she replies. So he gets back in his sleeping bag and starts to nod off when she again calls out with, "Father I'm still cold!"

So once again the priest gets up and puts another blanket on her, ensuring she is tucked into the bed well. "Is that better Sister?" he asks.

"Oh yes Father, that's much better," she says.

So the priest gets himself back into the sleeping bag and this time is just starting to dream when he wakes up to her call of, "Father, Father I'm just so cold!"

The priest thinks long about this and finally says, "Sister, we are in the middle of nowhere in a blizzard. No one but you, myself, and the lord himself will ever know what happens here this night. How about, just for this night, we act as though we were married?"

The nun thinks on this for a minute, she can't help but admit to herself she's been curious, and finally answers with a tentative, "OK Father, just for tonight, we will act as though we are married."

So the Father replies, "Get up and get your own damned blanket ya cow!" and rolls over to fall asleep.
